2 The record is intended to check litigation in regard to land and to facilitate its disposal by the Courts, to reduce unnecessary expenditure by the ryots in executing and registering documents and protect them against fraud and fabrication of false claims. It is also for the assistance to Government as well as the ryots in the distribution of assessment among the various hissadars, the grant of takavi and land improvement loans and the grant of suspension or remission of land revenue.

3 To facilitate the accurate preparation of the Record of Rights, the Preliminary Record will first be prepared by the Village Accountants to the best of his information in the prescribed Form and every case will be duly investigated by a Revenue Inspector or other Officer. There will then be a check of the Preliminary Record by the Tahsildar or other Officer authorised for the purpose. Occupants and persons interested in the land are required to furnish every information that may be within their knowledge to the investigating officers in order to ensure accuracy in the preparation of this Record which will form the basis of the future Record of Rights.

4 All persons interested in the land are required to render every reasonable assistance to officers of the Department of Land Records when they come to a village to measure the hissas and to conduct enquiries in case of disputed boundary lines between hissas in the field, after giving the prescribed notice.

5 The attention of the public is invited to the provisions of Section 130 of the Mysore Land Revenue Act, 1964 requiring them on requisition by a Revenue Officer engaged in compiling or revising the Record of Rights to furnish or produce the information and documents needed for the correct compilation or revision thereof, within 30 days from the date of such requisition. Failure to comply with this requisition and secure registration of their rights will render occupants and holders of interests in land liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 25 (recoverable as an arrear of land revenue). The Officer to whom any information is furnished or before whom any document is produced in accordance with the requisition will give a written acknowledgement therefor in the form prescribed to the person furnishing or producing the same and shall endorse on any such document before returning it to him, a note under his signature stating the fact of its production and the date thereof.
